The Gothic church of St. Catherine’s Monastery was established on the site of the former Minorite monastery church. It is a complex building of the former monastery adjoined to the Dominican Church before 1257. The simple smooth main façade of the monastery church belongs to a Dominican Convent.

The early Baroque St Michael’s church was built on the site of the original gothic church of the early-Baroque St Michael’s church was established in 1587–1592 on the site of the former Minorite monastery church. It is a complex building of the former monastery adjoined to the Dominican Church before 1257. The simple smooth main façade of the monastery church belongs to a Dominican Convent.

The Gothic church of St. Catherine’s Monastery was established on the site of the former Minorite monastery church. It is a complex building of the former monastery adjoined to the Dominican Church before 1257. The simple smooth main façade of the monastery church belongs to a Dominican Convent.

The Gothic church of St. Catherine’s Monastery was established on the site of the former Minorite monastery church. It is a complex building of the former monastery adjoined to the Dominican Church before 1257. The simple smooth main façade of the monastery church belongs to a Dominican Convent.

The Gothic church of St. Catherine’s Monastery was established on the site of the former Minorite monastery church. It is a complex building of the former monastery adjoined to the Dominican Church before 1257. The simple smooth main façade of the monastery church belongs to a Dominican Convent.

The Old Town Gatehouse was built on the corner of Husova St. and Blahoslavova St. as a baroque structure of a military fortification at the end of the 18th century. In the 19th century, the Baroque statue of Michael Engler's workshop is sounded annually in times of war troubles until 1920. The interior was renovated after WWII, the Church Union in 1925. the project was processed by the architect, Ladislav Skrivanek, who was approached by the Church Union in 1920. The project was processed by the architect and developer Josef Salek. Building commenced on September 19, 1920 and was completed in 1921. Under the leadership of contractors Johan Jakub and Tomas Praskovs, the building grew into a monumental structure of red bricks, concerts, and social houses, including a parsonage, situated on the corner of Husova St. and Blahoslavova St. As a baroque structure, the object serves as an important landmark in the city of Olomouc.
The number of monasteries in the city is also significant. The Benedict Monastery on Hradisko was the first in Olomouc, as well as the second oldest in Moravia. Currently, Olomouc is the only location in all of Central Europe, where one can visit the bishop’s office. Ceremonial religious people or Pope John Paul II.

The number of monasteries, churches, chapels, and sacred areas in relation to the population in the highest in all of the Czech Republic. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe, including the Holy Hill. It was the residence of the renewed Bishop of Morava. Currently, Olomouc is the only location in all of Central Europe, where one can visit the Bishop’s office. Ceremonial religious people or Pope John Paul II.

In Olomouc, the Church of St Maurice and the Church of St Wenceslas’ Cathedral. Its biggest bell weighs 25 tons. The bell-founder, Joachim Gross, is located on Holy Hill. St Maurice is the Patron of Olomouc. Currently, Olomouc is the only location in all of Central Europe, where one can visit the Bishop’s office. Ceremonial religious people or Pope John Paul II.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.

It is said that in Olomouc, the number of churches, chapels, and sacred areas is in ratio to the population is the highest in all of Central Europe. During the WWII, the Olomouc Synagogue was destroyed. In memory of the Synagogue, a plaque was placed on the university building located next to it.