The church with beautiful adjacent Baroque premises is one of the most famous pilgrimage places in Moravia. It is one of the unique sights in Central Europe, due to its location and architecture.

The first building at Holy Hill, a small chapel, was built in a clearing amidst forests in the years 1629–1632 at the behest and expense of Jan Andrýsek, a wealthy citizen of Brno, who was shown the Virgin Mary in a dream. The church's frontage with side wings creates an architecture of the cloister and the Chapel of the Virgin Mary. On the stairway outside the church, there are two statues, Sebastian and Roch, protectors against plague. The church's interior will surprise you with spaciousness, decoration of the main altar. Other altar paintings are the works of famous paint-ners such as J. Spillgbeneger, T. Flick, R. Trogan and F. T. Jensen. The shrine at Holy Hill was created by first-class Vien-dese sculptor B. Dvorského; Jan Andrýsek, who donated the church, also composed the courtyard of the chapel by B. Dvorského.

The Sanctuary replaced a small chapel, which was built in 1592 by J. Andera st. The altar painting was created by J. Winterhlader who, together with his brother, created also the sculpture of St. Norbert in the church. In facade niches, there are statues of the Virgin Mary with the Child, St. Stephen, St. Augustine and St. Bartholomew. The facade of both wings is decorated with sculptures of the Twelve Apostles and Sts. Cyril and Methodius from the year 1909. In the top of the sandstone portal, there is a trio of the Martyrs with the Decorative Mosaic altarpiece, created by J. Wolkera. The so called “Steps of Sorrow” Bolestné schody s dřevořezbou 1990. Significant events followed. In 1995, Pope John Paul II visited Holy Hill and upgraded the pilgrimage church to minor basilica.
